Chapter notes - plants and food

Key ideas

Green plants make their own food by photosynthesis.

They need sunlight, water, carbon dioxide and chlorophyll.

Leaves are the food factories of the plant.

Food is stored in roots, stems, leaves and seeds.

Try at home

Keep one plant in sunlight and one in a dark cupboard for a week. Write what you notice.